

Volunteer Kitchen Help

Volunteer Kitchen Help supports our culinary team in preparing and packaging nourishing meals for our clients. This role is crucial for ensuring the efficiency and quality of our meal production.

What do I do?

It takes a lot of work and organization to prepare over 300 meals each day. Our chef and kitchen staff are top-notch, but they can't do it all. That's why we need volunteers like you to be part of the team.

Each of our meals consists of an entrée and one or two sides placed in a small, segmented tray. Other items, like drinks and cookies, may also be included. Everything is placed into a translucent bag with the client's name, address, dietary needs and other info stapled onto it for easy sorting during distribution.

You'll be assisting with meal preparation and packaging of individual meals, washing dishes, cleaning up and providing whatever else may be needed as directed by the kitchen staff.

When and Where

You'll be working in our commercial kitchen at Mobile Meals headquarters on Sixth Avenue. Flexible shifts are available Monday through Friday. Each shift typically lasts 2-4 hours.
